1.03 History of the Plan

- (1) This Plan became effective July 1, 2011 after the previous pension plans of the City and the Board of Police Commissioners amalgamated into one plan. In addition to the amalgamation of the five plans, an agreement was reached between the City and the Board of the Moose Jaw Downtown and Soccer/Field-House Facilities to allow Employees of the Board of the Moose Jaw Downtown and Soccer/Field-House Facilities to join the Plan.

The previous plans and their original effective dates are as follows:

- (a) The Pension Plan for the C.U.P.E. Employees of the City of Moose Jaw – effective January 1, 1982;
- (b) The Pension Plan for the Employees of the City of Moose Jaw Fire Department – effective January 1, 1980;
- (c) The Pension Plan for the Out-of-Scope Employees of the City of Moose Jaw – effective January 1, 1982;
- (d) The Pension Plan for the Police Employees of the Board of Police Commissioners of the City of Moose Jaw – effective January 1, 1982; and
- (e) The Pension Plan for the Transit Employees of the City of Moose Jaw – effective January 1, 1982.

For the determination of benefits in effect prior to the Effective Date, the previous plan documents should be referred to.

2.00 ELIGIBILITY AND MEMBERSHIP

2.01 Eligibility

- (1) Each permanent Employee shall be eligible to join the Plan on the first day of the pay period following the date upon which the Employee becomes an Eligible Employee, provided such Employee has not attained the normal retirement date.

- (2) Any non-permanent Employee may elect to join the Plan providing the individual:
 - (a) has been an Employee for at least 24 months prior to the date of application for membership in the Plan; and
 - (b) has, in each of two consecutive calendar years immediately prior to the date of application earned at least 35% of the YMPE with respect to that employment.
 - (c) Notwithstanding this section, the employers reserve the discretion to allow eligibility for membership in the Plan before the dates specified in this section.
- (3) An employee who moves from one category of employee to another shall be eligible for benefits in accordance with the provisions of the appropriate employee category on the effective date of the change.

2.02 Membership

- (1) Each Employee shall join the Plan on the day the Employee becomes an Eligible Employee.
- (2) Once an Employee becomes a Member, membership shall be maintained even though the Remuneration may fall below the level stipulated for eligibility to become a member.

2.03 Enrolment

- (1) To join the Plan an Eligible Employee must complete and sign the form or forms prescribed for that purpose.

3.00 CONTRIBUTIONS

3.01 Member's Required Contributions

- (1) Subject to section 3.04, each Member shall contribute to the Plan, in addition to any contributions made by the Member to the Canada Pension Plan, an amount equal to:
 - (a) 9% of the Member's Remuneration for a Police Employee; or (Bylaw No. 5596)
 - (b) 8.5% of the Member's Remuneration for Firefighter Employee; or (Bylaw No. 5596)
 - (c) 7.5% of the Member's Remuneration for a Board of Police Commissioners CUPE Employee, a City Out-of-Scope Employee, a City CUPE Employee or a Transit Employee.
(Bylaw No. 5596)
- (2) A Member who is commencing an approved period of leave of absence shall contribute to the Plan in accordance with section 5.01.
- (3) When a Member is receiving long term disability benefits during a period of total disability, so certified by a medical practitioner, such contributions shall be deducted from the disability benefit and shall be based on the Member's level of Remuneration immediately preceding commencement of disability.

3.02 Member's Additional Voluntary Contributions

- (1) Subject to the allowable maximums, a Member may elect to make additional contributions to the Plan. Such additional voluntary contributions may be made in respect of current Service by regular payroll deductions.
- (2) Additional voluntary contributions which are made by payroll deductions may be altered at the option of the Member and in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements under which such investment options are made available by the Investment Agency.

3.03 Employer Required Contributions

- (1) The City shall contribute to the Plan an amount equal to the Member Required Contributions in respect of Members who are Firefighter Employees, City CUPE Employees, Transit Employees or City Out-of-Scope Employees employed by the City.

- (2) The Board of Police Commissioners shall contribute to the Plan an amount equal to the member required contributions in respect of Members who are Police Employees or Board of Police Commissioners CUPE Employees.

3.04 Maximum Contribution Permissible

- (1) Notwithstanding sections 3.01, 3.02 and 3.03, the sum of the Member's and the employer's contributions for a Member for a year shall not exceed the amount which would result in the pension adjustment for the year exceeding the lesser of:
 - (a) the money purchase limit for the year as defined in the Income Tax Act; and
 - (b) 18% of the Member's compensation as defined in the Income Tax Act for the year.

3.05 Excessive Contributions

- (1) Member or employer contributions shall be returned to the contributor if it is found that the contribution maximums have been exceeded.
- (2) Such returns to the contributor shall be taken:
 - (a) firstly from additional voluntary contributions; and
 - (b) secondly, in proportionate amounts, from the Employee Contribution Account and the Employer Contribution Account.

3.06 Permissible Contributions

- (1) No contribution or gift may be made to or under this Plan except as provided herein.

3.07 Transfers

- (1) This Plan shall accept Contribution Accounts transferred to it under the terms of any registered pension plan having provisions similar to the provisions of this Plan, and as permitted by the Income Tax Act.

4.00 ACCOUNTS

4.01 Member Accounts

- (1) Three separate accounts shall be maintained by the Investment Agency in the Fund with respect to each Member as follows:
 - (a) The member required contributions made in accordance with section 3.01 and any transfer made in accordance with section 3.07 shall be allocated to the Employee Contribution Account to be invested in accordance with the Member's investment directions pursuant to section 4.02.
 - (b) The Member's additional voluntary contributions made in accordance with section 3.02 shall be allocated to the Member's Additional Voluntary Contribution Account to be invested in accordance with the Member's investment directions pursuant to section 4.02.
 - (c) The employer required contributions made in accordance with section 3.03 shall be allocated to the Member's Employer Contribution Account to be invested in accordance with the Member's investment directions pursuant to section 4.02.

4.02 Investment of Accounts

- (1) The Member's Employee Contribution Account, Additional Voluntary Contribution Account and Employer Contribution Account shall be invested pursuant to directions provided by the Member in a number of investment options to be made available for these purposes. If a Member does not provide such instructions, the Member's Contribution Accounts shall be invested in one or more default options selected by the Board.
- (2) A Member may change the allocation of his Employee Contribution Account, Additional Voluntary Contribution Account or Employer Contribution Account among the various investment options offered in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements under which such investment options are made available by the Investment Agency.

4.03 Interest Credits and Valuation Dates

- (1) The value of each Member's Contribution Accounts shall be determined by the Investment Agency at each valuation date to take account of the allocation of net investment income, net realized and unrealized capital gains and losses and investment expenses incurred and allocated in respect of the Member.

- (2) Valuation dates shall occur at such times as may be required or permitted by the contract with the Investment Agency but not less frequently than monthly. The value of each account shall be computed on the basis of market values at the valuation date concerned, having regard to the terms of the Investment Agency's contract.

5.00 ABSENCE AND RE-EMPLOYMENT

5.01 Absence

- (1) For the purposes of the Plan, if a Member is absent from employment for a period not exceeding 12 months as a result of illness, a lay off or a leave of absence duly authorized by the City, the Board of Police Commissioners, as applicable, this shall not constitute termination of employment and, in the case of a Member, the following rules shall apply:

(Bylaw No. 5596)

- (a) if the Member receives pay, the Member shall continue to contribute to the Plan and shall be entitled to all benefits under the Plan as though actually at work;
 - (b) if the Member does not receive pay, employer required contributions to the Plan shall cease, but any benefits which had previously been accrued shall not be affected. The Member may elect to:
 - (i) make the Member's required contributions pursuant to subsection 3.01(1); or
 - (ii) make both the Member's required contributions and the employer required contributions, pursuant to sections 3.01 and 3.03.
- (2) Contributions made by the Member in accordance with clause (1)(b) shall be based on a "prescribed amount" of earnings, as permitted by the Income Tax Act, and equal to the Remuneration paid to the Member immediately before the leave commenced. Such contributions will form part of the Member's Employee Contribution Account.

- (3) If no election is made to continue to contribute, Member contributions will cease during the period of leave and the Member shall be deemed for purposes of the Plan to be an Inactive Member. Upon the Member's return to active service, contributions shall be resumed.
- (4) In accordance with the Income Tax Act, "prescribed" earnings for each Member is limited to five years of full-time equivalent Remuneration, plus an additional three years of full-time equivalent Remuneration in respect of periods of leave that immediately follow the birth or adoption of a child of the Member, subject to a maximum of 12 months for any one period of parenting.
- (5) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), if a Member is otherwise absent from employment and is not receiving long-term disability payments, the Member shall cease to be an Employee for the purposes of the Plan and shall be subject to the provisions for Termination of Service pursuant to section 8.00.

5.02 Re-Employment

- (1) An Inactive Member shall rejoin the Plan immediately upon again becoming an Eligible Employee.
- (2) A Deferred Pensioner shall rejoin the Plan immediately upon again becoming an Eligible Employee.

6.00 RETIREMENT DATES AND CONDITIONS

6.01 Normal Retirement Date

- (1) The normal retirement date of a Member shall be the first day of the month coincident with or next following attainment of age 65.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the normal retirement date of a Member who is a public safety employee as defined in the Income Tax Act shall be the first day of the month coincident with or next following attainment of age 60.

6.02 Early Retirement

- (1) A Member may retire on a pension on the first day of any month coincident with or next following attainment of age 50.
- (2) Notwithstanding the above, a Member who is a Police Employee may retire on an immediate pension on the first day of any month after completion of 20 years of employment with the Board of Police Commissioners.

6.03 Postponed Retirement

- (1) A Member who continues to be employed after the normal retirement age shall continue being a Member of the Plan.
- (2) A Member may elect to postpone payment of pension benefits or purchase of an annuity under the Plan beyond the Member's normal retirement age, up to the end of the calendar year in which the Member attains age 71.
- (3) A Member may, however, elect to purchase an annuity from an Insurer to commence at any time up to the end of the calendar year in which the Member attains age 71. The terms and conditions of the annuity and benefits during any periods of postponed payment of pension after date of purchase shall be in accordance with the agreement between the Member and the Insurer.

7.00 RETIREMENT BENEFITS

7.01 Retirement Benefit

- (1) Subject to the terms and conditions of section 6.00, a Member who retires from the Plan and who has not previously been granted a pension or a lump sum settlement under the Plan shall be entitled, upon application therefore, to the distribution of the value of the Member's Contribution Accounts determined as of the valuation date coincident with or next following the date upon which the Member retires. Such distribution shall be made available in the form elected by the Member in accordance with section 7.02.

7.02 Payment of Retirement Benefit

- (1) If a Member retires in accordance with section 7.01, the Member shall thereupon elect distribution of the Member's Employee Contribution Account and Employer Contribution Account in any one of the following forms:
 - (a) a single premium purchase of a life annuity from an Insurer, in a form acceptable under Applicable Legislation;
 - (b) a lump sum transfer to a locked-in retirement account;
 - (c) a prescribed registered retirement income fund; or
 - (d) another employer's registered pension plan, if permitted by such plan.
- (2) If a Member retires in accordance with section 7.01, the Member shall thereupon elect distribution of the Member's Additional Voluntary Contribution Account in any one of the following forms:
 - (a) a single premium purchase of a life annuity from an Insurer;
 - (b) a lump sum transfer to a registered retirement savings plan;
 - (c) a registered retirement income fund;
 - (d) another employer's registered pension plan, if permitted by such Plan; or

(e) a lump sum cash payment.

- (3) If the Member does not elect an option within six months from the date of retirement, the Board shall have the option of purchasing an annuity from an Insurer to commence immediately or upon the Member attaining normal retirement date, whichever is later.

7.03 Differentiation as to Gender

- (1) The gender of the Member or other Beneficiary under the Plan shall not be taken into account in determining the amount of periodic pension benefits provided by any annuity purchase.

7.04 Small Pensions

- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, where a Member is entitled to a retirement benefit pursuant to this section 7.00 of the Plan, the Member may receive the value of the Employee Contribution Account and Employer Contribution Account as a lump sum cash refund, if such total value is less than 20% of the YMPE in the year of payment.

8.00 TERMINATION OF SERVICE

8.01 Vesting and Lock-in

- (1) Employer Required Contributions on behalf of a Member are vested to the Member's credit as soon as membership in the Plan becomes locked-in.
- (2) A Member's lock-in occurs immediately upon enrolment.

8.02 Termination of Service

- (1) The amount standing to the Member's credit in the Member's Employee Contribution Account and Employer Contribution Account shall be transferred as of the valuation date coincident with or next following the date upon which the Member terminated, at the election of the Member, to:
- (a) a locked-in retirement account, as defined under the Pension Benefits Act;
- (b) another registered pension plan, provided the administrator of that plan accepts the transfer and agrees to administer the amount transferred in accordance with the Pension Benefits Act;

- (c) an insurance company to purchase a life annuity contract which complies with the provisions of the Applicable Legislation; or
 - (d) a registered retirement income fund, as prescribed under the Pension Benefits Act, provided the Member is eligible to retire pursuant to section 6.00 and the Member's Spouse signs the prescribed consent form.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection 8.02(1), a Member who ceases to be an Employee for any reason other than death, retirement or disability shall be entitled to receive up to 50% of the amount standing to the Member's credit in the Member's Employee Contribution Account as at December 31, 1993, in partial discharge of rights under the Plan, in the form of:
- (a) a refund in cash; or
 - (b) a transfer to a registered retirement savings plan.
- (3) If the Member does not make an election pursuant to subsections 8.02(1) and (2) within six months from the date of termination of Service, the Board shall have the option of purchasing an annuity from an Insurer to commence at normal retirement date from the balance in the Employee Contribution Account and the Employer Contribution Account.

8.03 Member's Additional Voluntary Contributions

- (1) On termination of employment, or termination of the Plan, the Member may elect to receive the value of the Member's Additional Voluntary Contribution Account, in the form of:
- (a) a refund in cash; or
 - (b) a transfer to a registered retirement savings plan.
- (2) If the Member does not establish a registered retirement savings plan within six months from the date of termination of Service, the Board shall have the option of making a refund in cash.

9.00 DEATH BENEFITS

9.01 Death Benefit Prior to Distribution of Members' Accounts

- (1) In the event of the death of a Member prior to the distribution of the Member's Contribution Accounts, the Member's Spouse, or, if there is no Spouse, or if the Spouse has waived in the prescribed form and in accordance with Applicable Legislation the Spouse's right to the death benefit, the Member's Beneficiary, shall be entitled to the distribution in accordance with section 9.02 of the value of the Member's Contribution Accounts as of the valuation date coincident with or immediately preceding the date of such distribution.

9.02 Distribution of Death Benefit

- (1) If a Member dies and has a Spouse, the Member's Spouse shall receive a lump sum cash distribution of the Member's Additional Voluntary Account (or transfer to the Spouse's registered retirement savings plan) and any distribution of the Member's Employee Contribution Account and Employer Contribution Account shall be made as either a:
 - (a) lump sum cash payment;
 - (b) transfer to the Spouse's registered retirement savings plan;
 - (c) transfer to another registered pension plan, provided that plan permits such a transfer;
 - (d) transfer to an Insurer to purchase an immediate or deferred annuity in a form permitted by Applicable Legislation, as designated by the Spouse and commencing no later than the later of one year after the date of death of the Member and the end of the calendar year in which the Spouse attains 71 years of age; or
 - (e) potential combinations of the above.
- (2) If a Member dies and does not have a Spouse or the Spouse has waived the death benefit in the prescribed form and in accordance with Applicable Legislation, the value of the Member's Contribution Accounts shall be payable to the Beneficiary as a single lump sum cash payment.

10.00 BENEFICIARY

10.01 Designation of Beneficiary

- (1) A Member may, by a signed declaration in writing filed with the Board, appoint a Beneficiary to receive the Member's death benefit, provided that in the absence of any such valid appointment, the death benefit shall be payable to the Member's estate.
- (2) A Member who has made a designation in accordance with subsection (1) above may from time to time alter or revoke the designation by filing with the Board such alteration or revocation in writing on a form prescribed by the Board for that purpose, subject to any statutory conditions or limitations.
- (3) If the Member has a Spouse and the Spouse has not waived the death benefit in the prescribed form and in accordance with Applicable Legislation, then the Spouse is the Member's Beneficiary regardless of whether the Member has appointed a Beneficiary pursuant to subsection 10.01(1).

10.02 Identity of Beneficiary

- (1) In the event of there being any doubt as to the identity of the Beneficiary or as to whether the Beneficiary is the person legally entitled to receive any benefit hereunder, such dispute shall be referred to the Court of Queen's Bench for resolution.

11.00 NON-ASSIGNMENT AND NON-COMMUTATION OF BENEFITS

11.01 Monies Payable

- (1) Except as provided in this Plan, any monies payable under this Plan shall not be assigned, charged, anticipated or given as security and are exempt from execution, seizure or attachment and any transaction purporting to assign, charge, anticipate or give as security such monies is void.

11.02 Breakdown of the Spousal Relationship

- (1) Notwithstanding anything else in the Plan, benefits provided under or by the Plan may be assigned, attached, or given as security under a court order or written interspousal contract made under The Family Property Act (Saskatchewan), provided however that:
 - (a) the written contract or court order conforms to the said Act and has been executed in a manner consistent with the Act;
 - (b) the amount to be assigned to the Member's estranged Spouse shall be the amount specified in the written contract or court order, but not more than 50% of the Member's equity in the Plan prior to the division, and shall be with effect from the date provided by the parties thereto; and
 - (c) a Member's estranged Spouse must transfer the assigned benefits to a locked-in retirement account, as defined under the Pension Benefits Act.
- (2) Except where a court order or written contract has been filed with the Plan Administrator by the Member and the Spouse or former Spouse jointly, the Plan Administrator shall give a notice, in writing, to the Member, that a court order or written contract has been filed.
- (3) The Plan Administrator shall:
 - (a) proceed with the division of the benefit if the Member does not file a notice of objection within 30 days of being provided with the notice cited in subsection (2);
 - (b) apply to the court for directions if a notice of objection is received within 30 days of issuing the notice cited in subsection (2).

11.03 Disclosure

- (1) In the event that a benefit is to be divided pursuant to a court order or a written interspousal agreement, the pertinent information shall be provided, upon request, to the Member, Spouse or the solicitor of any of them. The Member shall be notified of the information provided to the Spouse or the solicitor.

11.04 Enforcement of Maintenance Orders

- (1) Notwithstanding any provision of this Plan, or any Act, pension benefits that are payable to a Member, on a lump sum or periodic basis, are subject to garnishment pursuant to The Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act, 1997 for the purposes of enforcing a maintenance order as defined in that Act.
