

Domestic Violence Service Guide

Transition House Services

Moose Jaw Transition House Shelter: (306) 693 6511 24 hour crisis line - collect calls are accepted, if unable to call text (306) 631 0962 <https://mj-transitionhouse.com/thousedir@sasktel.net>

Safe, short term housing and on-going support for women and children fleeing violence.

Children Exposed to Violence Worker (306) 693 6848 childpr@sasktel.net

Offers services to children who have been exposed to violence; for ages 5 – 12 years.

Rural Outreach Worker (306) 630 5191 rural.transitionhouse@shaw.ca

Provides support in rural communities (Moose Jaw South Central Sask region) to provide presentations and develop safety planning with individuals and families who are experiencing domestic violence.

Emergency Outreach Worker (306) 630 9807 EOS.transitionhouse@shaw.ca

Provides non-residential based support to women and families impacted by domestic violence

Community Outreach Worker (306) 693 6847 mjoutreach@sasktel.net

Offers programming to males and females over the age of 13 who reside in the service area. Programming includes individual short term educational sessions and group work within the community, schools, and workplaces.

Resources

Canadian Red Cross: (306) 721-1600 www.redcross.ca Prevention education, information training & workshops that promote respect in terms of relationship violence, bullying & child abuse.

Kids Help Line: 1-800-668-6868 www.kidshelpphone.ca Toll-free, 24-bilingual, confidential and anonymous phone and web counseling, referral and information service for children and youth.

John Howard Society: (306) 693-0777 www.johnhoward.ca Helping offenders, victims and families: advocacy, program development, public education, networking and branch support services.

Ministry of Corrections and Policing: (306) 694-3649 Community Corrections is responsible for the provision of correctional and rehabilitative services to adults and youth in conflict with the law, including the SAFE (Stopping Abuse for Everyone) program for sentenced offenders.

Ministry of Social Services: (306) 694-3647

<https://www.saskatchewan.ca/government/government-structure/ministries/socialservices>

Child protection, community living; family violence, foster care, income assistance Moose Jaw

Regina Sexual Assault Centre

Offers free, confidential, clinical services to anyone age 5+ who is coping with sexual or intimate partner violence, as well as friends and family of survivors

24 hour crisis line 1-844-952-0434 <https://www.reginalsexualassaultcentre.ca/home.html>

PACT (Police and Crisis team) helps to respond to people with complex mental health challenges within our communities. (306) 694 7605

Royal Canadian Mounted Police – Moose Jaw: (306) 691-4670 Fdiv-moose_jaw@rcmp-grc.gc.ca

The overall goals are Crime Reduction, Crime Prevention and Safe and Secure Communities.

Seniors Neglect and Abuse Response Line: Regina & Area (306) 757-0127 (Mobile Crisis) <http://skseniorsmechanism.ca/resources-programs/seniors-neglect-abuseresponse-line/> 24 hour Crisis - Senior Abuse includes physical/sexual; psychological, emotional, and verbal; financial; neglect; and denial of entitlements protected by law.

Victim Services: Moose Jaw & District: Coordinator: (306) 694-7621

<http://www.mjpolice.ca/resources/VictimsServices> Information, support and referrals for victims of crime and tragic events. Volunteers, (306) 694-7624