(l) such other information as the City may require to satisfy itself that the requirements for approval of the Condominium Plan in the CPAct have been met.

(Bylaw No. 5464)

(2) No Condominium Conversion Application will be considered until all the information required in this section has been provided to the City.

(3) A Secondary Suite or a Property which includes a Secondary Suite is not eligible for conversion to a Condominium except in conformance with the Zoning Bylaw and Building Bylaw requirements for two unit dwellings.

(4) No condominium conversion application will be considered unless the CMHC vacancy rate is 3% or greater, unless the subject property is a Vacant or Heritage property under the definition of this bylaw.

(Bylaw No. 5464)

Conversion of Vacant Properties

5 If the Property is a Vacant Property then, in addition to the information required under subsection (1), the owner shall provide:

(a) an affidavit stating that the Property meets the definition of a Vacant Property; and

(b) a monthly summary of the Property's occupancy for the 12 months prior to the Application Date.

Conversion of Designated Heritage Properties

6(1) If the Property is a Designated Heritage Property and the Approving Officer determines that a Condominium Conversion may affect the heritage aspects of the Property then, prior to any approval or denial of the application, the Approving Officer shall provide a copy of the application and the supporting materials submitted to the City to the Heritage Advisory Committee for its review.

- (2) Following the review of the application and materials under subsection (1), the Heritage Advisory Committee shall in writing advise the Approving Officer as to whether, in the Committee's opinion, the Condominium Conversion applied for will adversely impact the heritage features of the Property.
- (3) Applications for condominium conversion of Designated Heritage Properties are exempt from minimum CMHC vacancy rate criteria (Section 11(1)(b))
(Bylaw No. 5464)

Inspection Report

7 At minimum, the Inspection Report shall include:

- (a) an independent, structural analysis of the Property's condition;
- (b) a description of potential items of repair or replacement for the Property;
- (c) an analysis of Life Safety Requirements aspects of the Property, including any deficiencies to the Life Safety Requirements aspects of the Property;
- (d) area, height and classification of the Property under the current National Building Code of Canada;
- (e) an analysis of the Property for compliance with or any variances from all applicable aspects of the statutes, regulations, codes or bylaws relating to building requirements; and
- (f) recommendations for corrective measures for the Property to become compliant with statutes, regulations, codes or bylaws relating to building requirements.

Drawings

8 At minimum, the Drawings shall include:

- (a) a site plan for the Property;
- (b) the locations of all work to be done at the Property;
- (c) the details of the work to be done at the Property;
- (d) the corridor pressurization system complete with fire dampers and any new shafts for duct work;

- (e) the shaft construction details;
- (f) the sprinkler system drawings including all components of the fire alarm system; and
- (g) the exit signs and emergency lighting.

Sale of Condominium Units

9 Every owner of a Property subject to a Condominium Conversion Application shall not offer any Condominium Units respecting that Property for sale to anyone other than the Tenants of that Property until the Condominium Conversion Application is approved.

Condominium Conversion Approval

10(1) The Approving Officer's and/or Council's decision to approve or deny a Condominium Conversion Application shall be based on whether it is satisfied that the conversion of the Property:

- (a) will not significantly reduce the availability of rental accommodation in the City;
- (b) will not create significant hardship for any or all of the Tenants of the Property; and
- (c) the Property and the land upon which it is located have the physical characteristics considered necessary by the City to make the Property suitable for Condominium Conversion.
- (d) meets all approval criteria listed in Section 11.

(Bylaw No. 5464)

- (2) Upon an approval of Condominium Conversion Application, the City Clerk is authorized to sign a certificate described in clause 10(1)(b) of the CPAct, which certificate is required to be submitted for approval of a Condominium Plan under the CPAct.
- (3) Within 10 days of a decision under this Bylaw, the City shall provide written notice of the decision to the owner of the Property.
- (4) Prior to Council's consideration of a Condominium Conversion Application the Approving Officer shall evaluate the application and any related material and prepare a report for Council.

- (5) Where a Condominium conversion involves a Designated Heritage Property, the report in subsection (4) will include the advice provided by the Heritage Advisory Committee whether the Condominium Conversion will adversely impact the heritage features of the Property.
- (6) In the event the Heritage Advisory Committee determines in its recommendation that the owner's Condominium Conversion will adversely impact the heritage features of the Designated Heritage Property that it is the subject of a Condominium Conversion then the Approving Officer or Council may deny the Condominium Conversion.
(Bylaw No. 5464)
- (7) The Municipal Planning Commission shall review the report of the Approving Officer and shall make a recommendation to Council."
(Bylaw No. 5464)

Approval Criteria

- 11(1) Each of the following criteria must be met for the Approving Officer and Council to satisfy themselves of the issues in subsection 10(1):
(Bylaw No. 5464)
- (a) whether the owner paid the applicable fee and submitted all the information required for a Condominium Conversion Application under sections 4 and/or 5;
 - (b) the CMHC Vacancy Rate is 3% or greater;
(Bylaw No. 5464)
 - (c) there are no outstanding property taxes owing on the Property;
(Bylaw No. 5464)
 - (d) the Property is not subject to any agreements that:
 - (i) restrict the owner from converting the Property into condominiums;
 - (ii) require the owner to maintain the Property as rental property;
 - (iii) restrict the owner from redividing the Property into one or more Condominium Units;
 - (e) the City's acceptance of the owner's written plan of proposed work submitted under clause 4(g), to remedy any deficiencies in the Property related to the Life Safety Requirements identified in the Inspection Report;
 - (f) the City's acceptance of the owner's completed building permit application submitted under clause 4(h), for construction or repairs to the Property to remedy the deficiencies identified in the Inspection Report; and
 - (g) the Property is suitable for conversion into a Condominium such that it meets the current requirements of all applicable statutes, regulations, codes and bylaws as of the Application Date.

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) the Vacancy Rate in clause (1)(b) is not a criterion for determining the approval of a Condominium Conversion Application respecting a Vacant Property.

Appeal Procedure

- 12(1) A decision of the Approving Officer to approve or deny a Condominium Conversion Application may be appealed by the owner to Council within 30 days following the date of receipt of the notice of the decision in subsection 10(3).
- (2) Council shall render a decision on an appeal within 60 days following the receipt of the appeal.
- (3) On appeal Council shall consider the issues in subsection 10(1) and the criteria in section 11 and confirm or set aside the decision appealed from.

Application of Other Legislation

- 13(1) Any rights conferred by this Bylaw are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other right of action or any other remedy available pursuant to any other Act or law.
- (2) Where a Condominium Conversion has been approved, a Tenant may enforce a Tenant Guarantee or Right of First Refusal Guarantee through any remedy available pursuant to any act or law, including through The Residential Tenancies Act, 1993.

Assignment

- 14 The owner of a Property subject of a Condominium Conversion Application shall ensure that any and all agreements the owner enters into with any Tenant for the purpose of providing Tenant Transition Assistance Measure, shall be binding on the Property owner's heirs, successors, assigns, agents, and property managers.

Public Notice

- 15 Prior to the consideration of a Condominium Conversion Application under this Bylaw, the City shall provide public notice that a Condominium Conversion Application has been received and will be considered for approval on a date certain, which notice shall be given as follows:
 - (a) notice of the matter shall be published in two consecutive Saturday editions of the Moose Jaw Times Herald;
 - (b) notice of the matter shall be posted on the City's web site at least seven days prior to the consideration of the matter; and

- (c) notice of the matter shall be posted on the Property subject of the Condominium Conversion Application at least 14 days prior to the consideration of the matter.

Registration

- 16(1) The Condominium Plan and titles for the Condominium Units that were the subject of a Condominium Conversion Application shall be registered at Information Services Corporation within two years of the date the Condominium Conversion Application was approved under this Bylaw.
 - (2) Approval of a Condominium Conversion Application under this Bylaw shall be void if the Condominium Plan and Unit titles are not registered within the time prescribed in subsection (1).
 - (3) The Approving Officer may approve one extension of the registration deadline in subsection (1) for the Condominium Plan and Condominium Unit titles.
 - (4) The extension period in subsection (3) shall not exceed six months.
- 17 This Bylaw comes into force on the day of passage.
