

Frequently Asked Questions about the City of Moose Jaw's Boards, Committees and Commissions

Q. Who can apply?

A. We have a wide variety of boards, committees and commissions that provide valuable input and advice to City Council on a range of topics impacting our community.

Q. How do I apply to become a member?

A. We are accepting applications for vacant positions! So, if you are passionate about your notorious community and want to have a say in your community go to Boards, Committees and Commissions Application | City of Moose Jaw or contact the Office of the City Clerk at cclerk@moosejaw.ca or 306-694-4424 to APPLY NOW!

Q. Why should I apply?

A. As Moose Jaw continues to develop, it is important that the members of voluntary City boards, committees and commissions reflect the diversity of our people. We need a variety of residents with ideas, skills, leadership, and energy – including Indigenous, visible minorities, women, and people of all abilities – to participate and share your knowledge.

Q. How long would I be a member?

A. For either one (1) or two (2) year staggered terms, or until a successor is appointed. For some boards, committees and commissions, citizens are not eligible to serve for longer than 5 years.

Q. How are members selected?

A. City Council reviews all applications and appoints the most qualified individuals in accordance with board, committee, or commission governance documents.

Q. What if I am not the successful applicant?

A. Following the appointments by City Council, the City Clerk's Office will notify applicants by sending a letter with respect to the status of their application. We encourage you to apply for any future vacancies that are advertised throughout the year, on the board, committee, or commission you chose.

Q. Are you looking for younger people to apply?

A. Yes. We believe it is important that voluntary board members reflect the diversity of our people including – Indigenous, visible minorities, people of all abilities, and women – to participate and share their knowledge.
